

Billy Loggins

Billy Loggins is a life-long resident of Crossville / Cumberland County. He has two children, Will and Lacy.

Billy has been active in the community for many years. He has served on many local organizations and state boards, some of them are Habitat for Humanity, Fair Park Senior Center, Hospice, Upper Cumberland Health Council, Healthier Tennessee, Garmin Wellness Council, and is a director with the Tennessee Golf Association. Billy represents Tennessee in the Nike P.L.A.Y program (Participate in the Lives of America's Youth) He was elected to the Crossville City Council and served two terms. Crossville is known as "The Golf Capital of Tennessee" he coordinates the TN Women's Open, and the TN Senior Men's Open, and founded the Tennessee High School Invitational Golf Championship that is played at Fairfield Glade annually and has coordinated many local charity golf tournaments.

Billy is a life-long athlete and enjoys working out daily. He has served on the Tennessee Senior Olympics board since 2014.